

Guide to Importation of Personal & Household Effects into New Zealand

TO QUALIFY FOR DUTY FREE ENTRY

Wearing apparel, toiletries, wedding gifts (with a value of less than NZ$110) and other personal effects are admitted duty and GST free so long as they are intended for your own personal use or wear and are not intended for any other person or for gift, sale or exchange.

Household goods imported by returning New Zealanders and Australians are admitted free of duty and GST provided they have resided outside New Zealand for more than 21 months and that the goods have been owned and used overseas by them.

Household goods imported by migrants (non Australian or NZ passport holders) are admitted free of duty and GST where the migrant holds a permanent residency visa, a "work to residence" visa or a work permit (valid for at least 12 months) in their passport upon arrival of the goods in New Zealand. The goods must have been owned and used overseas prior to importation.

Goods sent to a person in New Zealand as a gift will be admitted entirely free of duty and GST provided the value does not exceed NZ$110.

Antiques must be over 100 years old.

At the discretion of NZ Customs wine collections may be imported duty and GST free; evidence is required demonstrating that the wine has been collected over a period of time, is of varying types and genuinely forms part of the importer's household effects. Alcohol must be accompanied by a completed Alcohol Inventory, available on our website. Alcohol is subject to duty and GST.

Inherited goods should be accompanied by a death certificate and a copy of the will or a letter from the executor confirming the inheritance.

A Police Permit is required to import firearms into New Zealand. For further information please refer to www.police.govt.nz/service/firearms/importing.html.

The owner of the goods must be in New Zealand upon importation to qualify for duty and GST free entry, or within 6 months of arrival of the goods against payment of a monetary bond (Minimum NZ$500). If the owner does not arrive within 6 months any bond paid is forfeited and an additional processing fee of NZ$50 will apply.

Unless the above criteria are satisfied duty and GST (Goods And Services Tax) are payable, in which event and an additional processing fee of NZ$50 will apply.

CUSTOMS CLEARANCE

NZ Customs require a completed NZ Unaccompanied Personal Baggage Declaration and Supplementary Declaration with a full, descriptive inventory and passport containing your visa if required (or certified copy). If your goods are likely to precede your arrival in New Zealand you may nominate a friend or relative to act on your behalf. You will need to provide:

- Letter of Authority nominating your friend or relative to clear your good on your behalf
- Legible copy of photo/details page of passport (New Zealand/Australia) and your Visa (all other countries)
- Assessed value of consignment
- Date first left New Zealand to live overseas (returning New Zealanders)
- Evidence of your date of arrival into New Zealand (e.g. a copy of your airline reservation or ticket)
- Completed Client Code Application form NZCS224.

QUARANTINE EXAMINATION

All packing lists are screened by the Ministry of Primary Industries (MPI) to determine whether a consignment can be released immediately or whether an examination is required. Consignments containing alcohol, tobacco, medicines or prescription drugs may be delayed, incur additional costs and possibly be subject to a physical examination. For prescribed drugs a copy of the prescription will be required by NZ Customs. If MPI wishes to examine a consignment the following approximate fees will apply:

Baggage consignment	NZ$ 145
Consolidated Removal up to 142 cu ft	NZ$ 200
Consolidated Removal over 142 cu ft	NZ$ 250
Full container Load	NZ$ 400

The above fees incorporate both MPI charges and our representative's fee for handling, arranging and accounting for the examination. Please note that a Customs Lodgement fee of approximately NZ$50 also applies. These fees are payable to our representative.

FUMIGATION/STEAM CLEANING

If fumigation/steam cleaning of items (such as saddlery, cane ware, sports and garden equipment, tents, hiking or camping gear etc) is ordered as a result of a quarantine examination you will be responsible for costs incurred (one item approx NZ$75, Full container approx NZ$400).
